

Training Active Bystanders Student Trainers Assessment November 9th, 2012

When asked what their favorite part of teaching TAB was, students said:

“The opportunity to meet new people and help.”

“Coming together with people in our school.”

“Being able to try to make a difference.”

“Realizing that some people actually do care and being a role model.”

“Looking at the kids faces and seeing the way we changed their minds - we were really getting through to most kids.”

“Teaching them (the students) to do the right thing.”

“Feeling good about myself.”

“Kids got more open as we continued
